The Wedding Soundtrack

Create the playlist that tells the story of your relationship.

Most couples spend months planning their wedding day... but rarely take time to reflect on the moments that brought them there.

This activity helps you build a soundtrack of your relationship — the songs that represent your story.

Grab your favorite music app, sit down together and have fun with it.

There are no wrong answers.

How It Works

For each category below, choose a song that represents that moment in your relationship.
